

All American Archery JOAD Program Junior Olympic Archery Development

Tom Hinojosa, Head Instructor/Coach

(408) 621-4937 | www.AllAmericanArchery.com | tom@allamericanarchery.com

Summer 2011 Youth Archery Program

8-week Summer Session:

begins Saturday, July 9

ends Saturday, Aug. 27

Practice sessions:

Saturday Mornings, 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM at Stevens Creek County Park Archery range.

Programs

JOAD advanced - Pre- & Competitive archers

10:00 AM – 11:30 AM

JOAD beginners

10:30 AM – 11:30 AM

Cost:

$120.00 per session - cash or check payable to: All American Archery

drop-in rate: $20 per practice session

Events:

Summer Archery Camp: Bear Valley, CA June 27- July 1

Summer JOAD National Tournament: Sacramento, CA, July 6-10

COACHING STAFF

Tom Hinojosa, (408) 621-4937

USA Archery Level 3, High Performance/Regional Coach

Tom directs the program for All American Archery of Santa Clara Valley and the Junior Olympic Archery Development (JOAD) Program. He is also the Bowhunters Unlimited Club Rangemaster at Stevens Creek County Park Archery Range, instructional coordinator, and former assistant for the Stanford University Archery Team. Tom trains annually at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in the U.S.A. Archery National Training System under the direction of USA Olympic Head Coach, Kisik Lee and competes in archery events at the local, state, and national level. Tom works for the National Geographic Society-School Publishing Division in Monterey, CA.

Debbie Golzen, (408) 261-3173
USA Archery Level 2 Instructor

Debbie teaches and coaches archery for All American Archery and Bowhunters Unlimited. Debbie is the current President of the Bowhunters Unlimited Archery Club. Debbie is a local and regional archery champion and has been teaching kids for more than 25 years. Known for her enthusiasm for archery, kids, and learning, Debbie brings her own brand of fun to any event she is involved in. Debbie is a Private Investigator and maintains her own archery range at her residence in San Jose.

Luis Hinojosa, (408) 398-8274
USA Archery Level 1 Instructor

Luis teaches and coaches archery for All American Archery and Bowhunters Unlimited. He is an avid archer who practices with both recurve and longbow style equipment. Luis specializes in working with new/beginning archers and is our resident specialist in trail shooting and traditional recreational archery. He is a college student and Red Cross Volunteer of the Year for the Palo Alto Chapter of the Red Cross and instructor for multiple Red Cross programs including disaster preparedness and first-aid. Luis also supervised the youth preparedness program for the Red Cross in Palo Alto.